Re: Andrew C. Brown
File #51158

To the Admissions Committee:

It is always a pleasure to recommend a candidate for admission when that candidate brings forth incredible enthusiasm for attending U.S.C. It is with this in mind, and the thought that this same enthusiasm is the backbone of our contributing alumni ranks, that I recommend Andrew C. Brown for admission to the School of Business for Fall entry. Andy is one of those energetic, articulate and very positive individuals who can give you 50 reasons why U.S.C. has the best business program in the western U.S.; he recently gave me about 32 of them and will probably give me the rest sometime in the future.

Andy is a self-starter who has worked while attending Orange Coast College, always with a view toward an ultimate U.S.C. business degree and U.S.C. law degree later on. I am sure the School of Business will find him to be a serious contributor as well as a serious student.

Yours very truly,
